The following list is a suggested novel study appropriate to grade level. This should prevent repetition of novel studies in more than one grade level. This list is not to suggest that teachers are limited to ONLY these novels for study in his/her classroom. We ARE asking that teachers NOT teach any of the novels listed at other grade levels. (*Added or changed grades)

7th Grade
- Plays:
  - A Christmas Carol
  - The Monsters are Due on Maple Street*
- Novels:
  - Across Five Aprils
  - The True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle
  - Maniac Magee
  - The House on Mango Street
  - Tom Sawyer
  - Roll of Thunder*
  - Summer of Monkeys*
  - The Cay*
  - The Boy in Striped Pajamas*

8th Grade
- Plays:
  - The Diary of Anne Frank
- Novels:
  - In My Father’s House
  - The Call of the Wild
  - The Outsiders
  - The Witch of Blackbird Pond
  - The Giver*

9th Grade
- Plays:
  - West Side Story
  - Romeo and Juliet
  - The Odyssey*
- Novels:
  - Princess Bride
  - To Kill a Mockingbird
  - The Chosen
  - Great Expectations
  - Night*
  - Anthem

Revised August 2013
10th Grade

- Plays:
  - Our Town
  - Much Ado About Nothing (suggestion/any Shakespeare Play)*
  - Antigone*
  - Macbeth*

- Novels:
  - Animal Farm
  - Fahrenheit 451
  - A Separate Peace*
  - Their Eyes were Watching God*
  - A Lesson Before Dying*
  - Things Fall Apart*
  - Lord of the Flies
  - Ender’s Game
  - The Book Thief

11th Grade

- Plays:
  - The Crucible

- Novels:
  - Huckleberry Finn
  - The Scarlet Letter
  - Of Mice and Men

12th Grade

- Plays:
  - Hamlet
  - Henry V
  - The Taming of the Shrew

- Novels:
  - Pride and Prejudice
  - A Tale of Two Cities
  - Heart of Darkness
  - Things Fall Apart
  - Dickens (open)
  - All’s Quiet on the Western Front*
  - Jane Eyre

Revised August 2013